WHAT GOD HAS PURPOSED by Dickey Porter

There are billions of people living on the earth today. Who knows how many have lived on earth since our forefather and mother were placed in the Garden of Eden? Adam and Eve failed God, but God never failed them or anyone else who has ever lived on this planet that we call earth.

God didn't have a plan "B" after the disobedience of his man. Because of the Lord's omniscience, he knew that the tempter would come to Adam and Eve in the garden and that they would succumb to his wiles, and that by so doing they would not only bring death to themselves, but death to everyone born to them throughout all generations. The yoke of bondage was thrown over their shoulders on the day that they partook of the forbidden fruit.

But God already had plan "A" in operation when the Spirit of God moved on the face of the waters in Genesis 1:2 and God said – "Let there be light", thus separating the kingdom of darkness from the kingdom of light. God saw that the light was good and he called the light, Day and the darkness he called, Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day. On a side note, please notice that God didn't create the sun, moon, and stars to shine upon the earth until the 4th day. Genesis 1:14-19.

The Lamb of God was slain before the foundations of the earth were laid, but wasn't manifested in time until Jesus was hung on a cross on a hill called Golgotha about 2000 years ago. "All souls are mine" declares the God of the universe and even though an enemy sneaked into the Garden of Eden and stole God's most precious creation, does that mean that they do not belong to God anymore?

Our God is the Father of all spirits and all souls are deemed to be God's. Not all souls are redeemed, yet every knee shall bow, and every tongue shall confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father.

Now, this brings me back to the purpose that God has purposed for all the earth. The Bible declares that God sets us in the body as it pleases himself. If we are properly set in the body, then we are connected by joints that supply each and every part of the body. We are then in position to operate in the kingdom as God has determined that we should.

If we are not in the place that God has determined for us to be, then how can we possibly be in position to give and receive at the level that will edify the whole body? If a joint in a human body gets dislocated, there is so much pain and suffering that the entire body goes through until that joint is properly set again. Same thing happens in the body of Christ. Ever wonder why there are many who are sick and weak among us, and some even sleep? Is it because they haven't discerned the Lord's body and haven't been willing to be moved into their proper place in the body? Could it be that they weren't in position to receive the healing that Jesus provided for them by their being out of joint? (Not properly connected or in the body that God had for them)

Have we not heard the call of God? Have we heard the call and not obeyed the call? Have we been intimidated by our perception of the world to the point that we are afraid to answer the call of God? What if we knew for a fact what God has purposed for our lives? Would it make a difference in the way that we conduct ourselves or go about our daily ministrations? What is the ministry of the saints and do I have a part in this ministry?

We can all probably answer yes to some of the questions in the above paragraph, but there is hope as God will redeem the time of our sojourn in this earth if we are willing to be moved. What is God's purpose for my life?

"The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, 'Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass and as I have purposed, so shall it stand: That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders. This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations. For the Lord of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? And his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?'" Isaiah 14:24-27

The yoke of bondage that was placed upon the human race because of Adam and Eve's disobedience has been lifted by the sacrifice of Jesus. When Jesus became the final sacrifice, he defeated all principalities, powers, rulers of darkness, and spiritual wickedness in high places. The prison doors were opened and all humanity was set free. Why are you still sitting in your prison cell? Why have you not come out?

It is because the carnal mind is against God and not subject to the laws of God. Romans 8:7. It is in the carnal mind that all logic, reasoning, our wills, and physical senses are processed in our thinking. The carnal mind is a partaker of the knowledge of the tree of good and evil. Even if you only partook of the good of the tree of knowledge of good and evil, the good would kill you. The reason that Adam and Eve were evicted from the Garden of Eden was so that the way to the tree of life would be kept.

When they were driven out of the Garden of Eden, the tree of the knowledge of good and evil went out with them. The timbers of that tree make up the bars of the gates of hell that are guarding the strongholds of the mind, but the gates of hell will not prevail or overpower the church or the Kingdom of God.

The 6-6-6 of the Revelation of Jesus Christ is the mark of the beast or the fallen nature or the carnal mind that every human being has inherited from our forefather Adam. It is the basic cause of every struggle that we have. The number 3 is representative of God or dimensions in God. The number 6 is representative of man. Thus the 6-6-6 is man claiming to be God, the beast sitting in the temple of God claiming that he is God. This is why the carnal mind can never inherit the Kingdom of God.

The renewing of the mind is so vital to our life. It is a day by day working out our salvation with fear and trembling. The bondage that human beings are slaves to, is the mind of man wanting to control every aspect of life including all spiritual matters. This isn't going to ever happen.

The reason that John saw the souls of them under the golden altar who were beheaded by the word of God and the testimony that they held was because the carnal mind cannot enter the 3rd dimension of God which is the Paradise of God where the tree of life is located.

The only way into Paradise in this life is through the baptism of the Holy Ghost with the evidence of speaking in tongues as the Spirit gives the utterance. This is the rest of God. People struggle with this experience because they want to know what they are saying in the spirit. If they knew what they were saying, they could control the language. But they are speaking in a language that they do not know or have any control over. However, in the spirit, they are speaking mysteries and are speaking unto God. This bypasses the carnal mind.

Ultimately, when we lay down our lives by presenting our bodies a living sacrifice and quit being conformed to this world system of thinking, and be transformed by the renewing of our minds, we will begin to take on the mind of Christ. The mind of Christ is a mind that thinks like God, talks like God, acts like God and is like God. Our motivation for being or doing anything will be love because God is love.

When we reach that state of God consciousness then there will no longer be a breach between the soul and spirit of man. Then what God has purposed for the earth will have been accomplished. No longer under the yoke of bondage, no longer yielding to unclean spirits, but ruling and reigning with Jesus in this present life.

The spirit that wanted to exalt itself above the throne of God in the eons of time past, is finally being trodden under the foot of the saints upon the mountains of God. This is what God has purposed for all the earth and his arm is stretched out and who will turn it back?
